

Consent given to the Hargrave Heritage Project

The Project

Hargrave Parish Council and St Edmunds Parochial Church Council have formed a partnership known as the “Hargrave Heritage Project”. Its purposes is to gather information on the history of the village and to publish such for free access through a new heritage website and exhibition to be established. The activities of the project will be widely promoted through all appropriate types of media, including social media.

Data Protection

It is recognised that some of the project’s activities may fall within the scope of Data Protection as administered by the Information Commissioner’s Office and this consent form is designed to meet that authority’s GDPR requirements. This form grants the Project consent to include and publish the information listed in the “Schedule of Material” overleaf and/or attached to this consent within it’s website and exhibition, and within any media promotion.

The Consent

The undersigned hereby grants permission to the Hargrave Heritage Project to incorporate the documents, photos or other material listed on the Schedule overleaf or attached hereto into it’s website, exhibition or other types of presentation and within any media promotion of it’s activities. I hereby release Hargrave Parish Council, St Edmunds Parochial Church Council, the Hargrave Heritage Project and their respective officers and volunteers from all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of the specified materials, including, without limitation, all claims for invasion of privacy, infringement of my right of publicity, defamation and any other personal and/or property rights. I acknowledge that the scheduled material has been freely donated to the Project.
